

Do you believe in great music? We do.

As a paid intern at Crescendo Amelia you'll work hands-on with our director and a team of professional musicians. You'll learn skills and use them to help support our mission: to create vibrant, engaging, and meaningful performances that bring to life the incredible legacy of big band & jazz music. This is not your average internship and includes a stipend of up to $1000.

You'll have the opportunity to develop skills in:

- Business operations specific to the performing arts, with a focus on music
- Ensemble coaching and directing
- Artist and relationship management
- Social media strategy
- Event marketing, planning and execution
- Digital marketing and advertising
- Crafting e-mail, print and digital marketing communications
- Audio and visual production

You'll make a difference by:

- Helping fans and audiences engage with our music and musicians
- Acting as a liaison between a variety of diverse audiences across demographics
- Working on campaigns and events that drive meaningful outcomes
- Educating our community on historical and contemporary topics surrounding jazz and big band
- Working with artists to support their craft

Requirements:

- Passion for people, live music, and events
- Excellent communication skills, written and verbal
- Digital fluency including e-mail, social media platforms and apps
- Fantastic interpersonal skills
- Knowledge of graphic design and/or video editing tools is a plus
- You do not have to be a musician to apply!
